DETAIL INFORMATION

HTL firmly believe in applying the highest ethical standards for human rights, labor and environmental practices.

We understand that our manufacturing units should not stand apart from the country in which they operate and that their activities and conduct should be a source of positive influence.

As a supplier, we recognize that, by treating our employees with respect and allowing them to operate in working conditions that are clean and safe with a fair days wage, will make a difference in increasing productivity, reducing risk and improving quality of product. In turn, this will also lead to increased customer confidence.

Being socially compliant only delivers these benefits if done effectively so a monitoring program, with country law as a minimum standard, is in operation with improvement programs geared towards full compliance achievement.

In summary, here are some of the main elements of the Hasnat Textile Ltd. Code of Conduct:

Compliance with national laws and regulations: HTL should observe all applicable national laws, rules and regulations in force. In areas not, or only weakly, regulated by national law, they shall strive to act according to the values and principles laid down in the Code.

Basic understanding of responsible corporate behavior: Through HTL business activities, they should contribute to their community's wellbeing, promotion and development. This, through the promotion of the principles of responsible management, such as transparency, accountability, sincerity and integrity. No form of bribery or corruption practiced by management or workers shall be tolerated.

Respect for human rights: It is the responsibility of private enterprise to take all possible and economically feasible measures within their sphere of influence to assume their responsibility to respect human rights. In the case of infringements directly related to a company's business activities, HTL should use their influence to encourage the responsible actors to mitigate risks or remedy rights violations in the supply chain.

Labour rights and working conditions: HTL shall uphold the eight core labour standards of the International Labour Organization (ILO) and should commit to create a safe and humane working environment.

Effective remediation of child labour: HTL should commit to work towards the effective remediation of child labour by agreeing upon a minimum acceptable working age of not less than 18 years. A worker's age must be determined before employment.

Protection of workers and skills development: HTL workers should not carry out work in dangerous, unsafe or hazardous conditions or work which is harmful to their safety and health. They also may not work during night hours and shall avoid working with potentially harmful machines or substances, including (but not limited to) fabric cutting machines or toxic chemicals. In HTL, workplace training should be welcomed and encouraged.

No forced labour: HTL do not tolerate any form of forced or compulsory labour. Workers shall have sought work on their own free will. All work or service which is demanded under the threat of penalty, violence or intimidation and for which they said person has not offered him or herself voluntarily shall be objected

Freedom of association and right to collective bargaining: The workers' rights to establish and to join work organizations of their own choosing without previous authorization shall be respected and the right to collective bargaining shall be observed. HTL shall adopt an open and collaborative attitude towards the activities of trade unions. The Representatives must be elected in a fair and neutral electoral procedure. Humane treatment of workers: HTL Management all levels treat their workers with respect and dignity and does not engage in abusive or inappropriate behavior towards workers. Disciplinary measures may not involve physical punishment or psychological harassment.

Wages and benefits: The wage level for regular working hours shall not fall below contractual or legal minimum wage rates in HTL. Illegal and unjustified wage deductions, in particular for disciplinary measures, HTL does not tolerate.

About Hasnat Textile Ltd.

HTL is a prominent & trusted name in the arena of 100% polyester wrap and circular knitting industries. This organization focuses fully on export business as it is a 100% export-oriented manufacturing and supplying company. HTL started working with this particular fabric from 2010 but the organization made its official journey from 2020 in this field.

Cutting edge knit composite production facilities owned by HTL meet the expanding demands of Bangladeshi exporters of high-quality knit clothing. The project was designed to serve high quality polyester wrap & circular knitting industry, dyeing, and finishing knit fabrics.

The company has produced and supplied high-quality apparels over the years and is currently introducing all the most recent hard and soft technologies in knit fabric knitting, dyeing, and finishing.

At the time of its establishment HTL's main focus was to manufacture textile & apparels. But with the passing of time the company has flourished and spread its wing to other fields such as knitting and dyeing. They also provide laboratory supports to their clients as per the requirement and demand.
